August 2013

It's been another great season at Yalara, despite the snow being variable at times. It has been a season of big dumps followed by disappointing rainfall. But the good news is things are looking up! Perisher has seen 73cm of snow fall in the past week and the base has reached 1.7m. Fingers crossed it's going to be a fantastic spring!

Blue's Room

The new recreation room known as Blue's Room was finished in time for opening weekend and has been a welcome addition to the lodge this season. Thanks to Meg Redwin for posting the photo above on Facebook showing the room was popular with young footy fans during the July school holidays! There are plans to add a false ceiling to hide the pipes and to add some posters to make it more homely.

New chair for Guthega!

Perisher is opening a new quad chair at Guthega next season. The Freedom Chairlift will take skiers from the bottom of Cow Pastures J-Bar to the top of the Blue Cow T-Bar. Cow Pastures J-Bar will be removed, opening up Hanky Panky and the Cow Pastures lift line for skiing.

2014 season pass

Next year's season pass has gone on sale, frozen at the same price as 2012. The pass costs $699 if you buy now, with a $199 deposit now and the balance paid on May 1.

Yalara address

Yalara has a new address! The National Parks and Wildlife Service has given the lodge the address of 126 Wheatley Rd, Perisher. Why 126? Because the location is 1.26km from the nearest intersection, apparently!

AGM

We are keen to see more members at next year's AGM. There is talk of holding the event on a Sunday afternoon and giving away lucky door prizes.
